

"I have had the great privilege of being a guest teacher at Dance Theatre International in San Jose and can't recommend it highly enough! Xavier and Maggie Parungao - Ferla have brought their extensive experience and passion to the school they have created. The students are beautifully trained and are able to get one on one attention that might be missed in a larger institution. Here the motto seems to be quality more than quantity and it is a great gift to the students that attend. I thoroughly enjoyed the classes I taught and was extremely impressed by the careful thought the staff puts into teaching these young dancers the fundamentals of movement and dance."
